Feb 3, 1916 Pocahontas Times

In memoriam

Hazel Ann, infant daughter of Effie M. and Asa Clark Barlow was laid to rest in Edray Cemetery January 26th where a large crowd of neighbors gathered after funeral services at the home conducted by Rev. H. A. Coffman.

She was born November 9, 1914 and departed this life January 25, 1916 aged 14 months and 16 days. The little sufferer was anxiously watched and cared for by loving hands for 3 weeks while medical skill wrestled with the dread pneumonia, which had early set in. But the Good Shepherd who carries the frail lambs of his Kingdom in His bosom, reached down and took her away from the sickness and tears of this world.

Barlow-Faulkner

Miss Mary Frances Faulkner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Faulkner, became the bride of Owen Neal Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barlow, Saturday evening, April 16, 1938, at a wedding ceremony in Cumberland, Maryland. Rev. Fred B. Wyand, the bride's former pastor officiated. Those witnessing the ceremony were Mrs. Fred B. Wyand, of Cumberland, and Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Johnson of Marlinton.

Mrs. Barlow was a member of the Marlinton graduating class in 1936 and Mr. Barlow in 1934.

After a short motor trip through Maryland the couple returned to Marlinton where they will reside.

Pocahontas Times

Margaret Barlow, of Arlington, Virginia, spent the holidays here with her mother, Mrs. Samuel H. Barlow. Margaret is a doctoral candidate working toward E. D. Degree at George Washington University.

Former County Man Killed in Plane Crash

Virgil S. Taylor, of Seven Valleys, Pennsylvania formerly of Cass, was killed in the crash of a small plane near Cabins in Grant County Saturday afternoon. Also killed in the crash was the plane's pilot, Charlie Hammerstein, of Glen Rock, Pa. Mr. Taylor's son-in-law. Miraculously surviving the crash were two daughters of Mr. Taylor, Gloria Hammerstein, 24, and Rebecca Lynn Taylor, 13. The two women were found after 18 hour search by over 100 emergency crew volunteers from surrounding counties.

Mr. Taylor is the stepfather of Willa Zuen, of Cass. Mrs. Taylor, his daughters, and son-in-law were heading to Cass for the Labor Day weekend when the crash occurred.

The ill-fated flight began at 12:30 P.M. Saturday from Thomasville Airport near York, Pa, and was to end at Elkins. Flying conditions were extremely poor and the plane was down in rugged terrain before 2 P.M. Emergency locator transmitter signals were picked up almost immediately but due to foul weather and mountains the exact location of the plane was not determined until 4 P.M. Sunday.

It took another 4 1/2 hours to reach the plane and the two survivors. They were taken to the Grant Memorial Hospital and later transferred to Memorial Hospital in Cumberland, Maryland. Mrs. Hammerstein suffered lacerations while her sister had head and facial injuries and a fractured leg.

Involved in the search for the plane were the Morgantown Civil Air Patrol, several fire departments, ham radio operators, emergency squads, state police, Department of Natural Resources, and other law enforcement agencies.

Hammerstein :- Taylor

Gloria Ann Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Taylor, of Seven Valleys, Pennsylvania, and Charles Arthur Hammerstein, of York, Pennsylvania, were united in marriage on March 14, 1987, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the Red Lion Bible Church, Red Lion, Pennsylvania.

The Reverend Donald Schmuck officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Ada Krone, at the organ, played "We've Only Just Begun," and "I Love You Truly."

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal length white satin gown and a long white veil. She carried a bouquet of daisies with light pink rosebuds, baby's breath and greenery.

Monica Nayhew, of Seven Valleys, served the bride as maid of honor. She wore a formal length blue satin gown and carried a bouquet of yellow flowers.

The groom wore a dark blue tuxedo with a white carnation boutonniere. The best man, Mike Lema, also wore a dark blue tuxedo and a white carnation boutonniere.

The mother of the bride wore a lavender dress and a yellow rose corsage. The father of the bride wore a dark blue tuxedo with a white carnation.

Edd Biehl, of York, Pennsylvania, was photographer; he also made a video tape of the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church by Mrs. Louise Nayhew and Mrs. Christine Marshall.

The white, three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue flowers and green design, topped with blue wedding bells and a small bride and groom, made by Lou Kasper.

The bride is the sister of Billie Sueon of Case.

Mrs. Queen and her daughter, Robin Queen, attended the wedding. Robin caught the bride's bouquet and the bride's brother, Daniel Taylor, caught the bride's blue garter.

The groom is a part-time pilot and the wedding trip will be a trip to West Virginia by airplane at a later date.

The couple is residing at Glen Rock, Pennsylvania.

Vicki Kay Dragg and Ronald Lee Mick were united in marriage September 25, 1982, with a traditional wedding ceremony at the Wanless Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mark Hickman.

Vicki is the oldest daughter of Bud and Brenda Dragg, of Durbin. Ronald is the youngest son of Clyde and Alma Mick, formerly of Durbin, now residing at Green Park.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white traditional bridal gown and veil. Her Matron of Honor was Joretta Bennett of Durbin. The bridesmaids were Kim Tenney, of Boyer, sister of the bride, and Judy Mick, of Durbin.

William Mick, brother of the groom, served as best man. Rodney Bennett of Durbin and Tom Tenney of Boyer were the ushers.

Annabelle Lambert, of Frank played beautiful wedding music on the church organ.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents held a reception for the couple at their home.

Vicki is currently employed at the Hermitage Hotel and will return to her job at Snowdole Ski Resort soon. Ronald is employed in the Security Department of Snowdole. The couple plan to reside at Snowdole.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Rella L. Lacy, who passed away
November 20, 1970.

Your gentle face and patient smile
with sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each
and died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten, loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember Thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore
as time goes by, we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face.

Conrad + Jacy

Mr. and Mrs. Berle Jacy, of Marlinton, wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen Lenora to Ray Jennings Conrad, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Conrad, of Mingo.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the Marlinton Methodist Church, Friday night, November 16, 1962, at seven o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. George McClure, in the presence of Mrs. Shirley Cromer, Dana Barrickman and John Arbogast, friends of the couple.

The bride wore a soft blue wool street length dress. Her only accessory was a white orchid corsage.

The bride attended Marlinton High School and is presently employed at French's Diner in Marlinton.

The groom is a graduate of Mill Creek High School, class of 1956. Upon completion of high school he enlisted in the United States Army and served three years. He currently is employed by The Mazon Coal Company.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Della Jacy, of Wisc. The groom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam M. Rhen, former residents of Marlinton.

The Marietta Times

Wanda Tracy Is Married

Picture

Rev. C. E. Winkler of Webster Springs and Rev. LeRoy Richardson were the officiating ministers when Miss Wanda Tracy was married August 18 to Robert Eugene Jacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jacy of Cass.

The wedding was held at the Arbovale Methodist Church and a reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Claude Tracy of Arbovale. Nuptial music was played by Miss Mary Margaret Woodruff, who accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Lewis Brevard, sister of the bride.

John H. Tracy gave his sister in marriage. She was dressed in net and lace over satin with an illusion veil held by a crown of lace and seed pearls. White rosebuds covered her satin Bible.

The bride was attended by the Misses Betty Ruth Sheets, Audrey Kessler, Elaine Peck and Mrs. Carroll Zacharke and flowergirls were her nieces, LeAnna Joy Brevard and Rose Carol Brevard. Dale McLaughlin was best man and ushers were Jerry Shears, Marlin Shears and Ray Cassell. Helen Mullenox serving as ringbearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacy, graduates of Green Bank High School are honeymooning in Quebec and on Prince Edward Island. They will make their home in Circleville, Ohio, where she is teaching school. She was graduated from Ashbury College and her husband, who had four years' Naval duty, is attending Ohio State University.

The Pocahontas Times

Mrs. John Ryder

Mrs. Ruth Gaylor Ryder, 20, of Mountain Grove, Virginia, was killed instantly when a car driven by her husband struck an oncoming car and plunged over an embankment Saturday night, November 16, 1963. The accident occurred near Minnetaha Springs.

Mrs. Ryder attended Green Bank and Marlinton Schools.

Survivors include her husband, Johnny Ryder; her mother, Mrs. Grace Gaylor, of Marlinton, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Lacy, of Cass.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the Beaver Creek Methodist Church by the Rev. Ray Ball. Burial was in the Beaver Creek Cemetery near Huntersville.

10/8/1981. Card of Thanks

I want to thank each and everyone for all the kindness shown to me and my family at the time of the death of my beloved husband, Harry C. Moats.
No matter how small the deed or how large I want to thank each and everyone from the bottom of my heart. Thanks for the cards, food, flowers, visits and calls, and money, a special thanks to Tom Sanders, Chuck Davis and Joyce Rose for taking time out in helping with the children and for just being there when I needed them the most. Also a very special thanks to the coaches and the midget football team for their corn and help. Special thanks to Cliff McLaughlin and David Lane for all their kindness and help,

Rev. Higgins and the Van Reenen Funeral Home.

May God bless each and everyone of you.
You lightened my load by just being there when I needed it the most and I'll always remember each and everyone of you.

In Memory

In loving memory of my darling wife, Minnie Kesler, who passed away one year ago, April 21, 1964.

Dad saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed her loving eyes,
and whispered "Peace be thine."

Her days of pain are over,
and weary hours are past.
Her even patient, worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

Who was always ready with a smile,
To lend a helping hand?
Who grew still sweeter day by day,
and still more thoughtful, too?
There's just one answer, Minnie, dear,
That wonderful person was you.

In Memoriam

Harold Leonard Kesler was born on March 8, 1922, and departed this life on September 11, 1940, aged 18 years, 6 months and three days. He was killed in an automobile accident in New York State.

He leaves to mourn his loss his father and mother, Mr + Mrs Pearl Kesler; two sisters, Allene and Audrey; two brothers, Paul and Lane, and one half brother, Ralph. His two grandmothers and one grandfather also survive.

On Sunday afternoon the Wanless Church was the scene of a large congregation of saddened relatives and friends who had come to pay their last tribute of love and respect to one who had been so suddenly called from their midst.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Shan, assisted by Rev. Howard Whiston and Rev. A. R. Arbogast. The pallbearers and the flower girls were the young men and women who had grown up with Harold and were members of his Sunday School class.

We cannot understand why one so young, just beginning to live, must so quickly be cut down. But God doeth all things for the best. Sometime we will understand all the mysteries of God which we cannot unfold here. We only hope that some day in a better place:

"Where the flowers always bloom and where there is no setting sun;

That we will meet you, Harold,
when our work here is done."

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our deep appreciation to those who helped in anyway during the death of our dear son, Harold. May God richly bless each one of you is our prayer.

Keslers Visit Chief Justice of U. S. Supreme Court

Paul and Florence Kesler, of Cass visited Washington, D.C. for a ceremony in the United States Supreme Court. The Chief Justice, Warren Burger, greeted the Keslers in a small private ceremony during the swearing-in of Paul Kesler's brother-in-law, Herbert E. Ellingwood, as Chairman of the United States Merit Systems Protection Board. Also attending the ceremony was Edwin Meese III, Counselor of the President.

Mr. Meese and Mrs. Ellingwood held the Bible while Mr. Ellingwood took the oath of office. Audrey Kesler Ellingwood graduated from Greer-Bank High School in 1951 and returned to teach in Greer-Bank Grade School after attending college at both Glenville State Teachers College and Davis & Elkins. Married in 1957, she and her family have spent 25 years in California. Mrs. Ellingwood served in the government, six years of which was as Legal Affairs Secretary to then Governor Ronald Reagan. They will be living in the Washington, D.C. area while Mr. Ellingwood serves the President; he has been the Deputy Counsel to the President for the last year.

Graduates

Bonnie Kesler Ferguson, formerly of Cass and her husband, the Reverend Jeffrey Ferguson, both received notice that they successfully completed the necessary work for their Masters Degrees. Bonnie graduated from Pocahontas County High School in 1973 where she was a leader in Student government, the president of the Bible Club and was active in the music department. She graduated from Valley Forge Christian College in Pennsylvania where she met her husband; they both graduated in 1977. Bonnie received a Bachelor of Science in Bible with a major in Christian Education. She and her husband, since then, have been ministering in Assembly of God Churches in Wilmington, Delaware and Lanham, Maryland, while pursuing Graduate Studies at Loyola College. The advanced degrees are both Masters of Science in Psychology with a major in Pastoral Counseling.

The Rev and Mrs Ferguson have been invited to Taiwan this summer to assist in religious crusades.

Bonnie is the daughter of Paul and Florence Kesler, of Cass and granddaughter of Mr and Mrs Edwin Wilson of Cass and the late Mr and Mrs Pearl Kesler of Cass.

In memory of William Kesler

He left on a fair fall day up to the heavens he flew away
So young, vital and alive
Now we are left with hurt inside.
The memories of William are so sweet
I hope someday that we will meet
But I guess for now, I'll just have to deal
With all the memories that seem so real
I pray to God up above
Give sweet William all our love

Card of Thanks

We, the family of William Kesler, would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to Inver-State Lumber Co. and employees, to the Truckers for their calls and concerns, for calls, cards, food and flowers; especially, the North Fork neighbors, Wallace and Wallace, Wanless church, flower girls, and Dr. John Sharp.

A special Thanks to our family, to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Frazer, Paul Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cassell, Bob and Mary Brown, Rev. Kittenhouse, Rev. Mark Hickman, Donald Nottingham, Harper Legate and Dudley's Truck Stop in Rocky Mt., Virginia; and a special Thanks for prayers and support given to us.

If there is anybody we missed, we'd like to thank everybody that helped in any way during our time of sorrow. May God bless each and everyone of you.

In Memoriam
Donald Mason Haptonstall

In memory of Seaman First Class Donald Mason Haptonstall, who was born at Bellepoint, October 17, 1922, moving to Cass when 17 months old. He died on the USS Leyte at sea, on June 16, 1946, of a massive cerebral hemorrhage. He enlisted in the United States Navy on December 12, 1940. His body was laid to rest on June 23, 1946 at the End of the Trail Cemetery in Greenbrier County to await the Resurrection when the Lord shall gather his jewels unto Himself.

I often think I see his smiling face,
As he bade his last goodbye,
and he left his home forever,
In a distant land to die.

Time speeds on, two years have passed Since death its gloom, its shadows, cast within our home, where all seemed bright, and took from us a shining light.

We miss that light, and ever will,
This vacant place there is none to fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we will meet again.

(over)

He is gone but not forgotten, and, as dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.

Days of Sadness will come o'er us.
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed.

His bright brown eyes and cheerful face are so pleasant to recall,
He had a loving word for each,
and died beloved by all.

There is a mother who misses you sadly, and finds the time long since you went,
and I think of you daily and hourly,
But try to be brave and content.

But the tears that I shed in silence,
and I breathe a sigh of regret,
For you were mine and I remember Though all the world forget.
